Importance: High

Dear Mr. Dewey:

It's come to our attention that Exhibit 12 to your recently filed Affirmation contains the complete and unredacted social security number for our client, Mr. Richard Edelman. For your review, a copy of your Exhibit 12, as filed, is attached hereto.

This public disclosure of Mr. Richard Edelman's social security number is a violation of his personal right to privacy and a violation of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 5.2. (“(a) Redacted Filings. Unless the court orders otherwise, in an electronic or paper filing with the court that contains an individual's social-security number, taxpayer-identification number, or birth date, the name of an individual known to be a minor, or a financial-account number, a party or nonparty making the filing may include only: [¶] (1) the last four digits of the social-security number and taxpayer-identification number[.]”)

Please confirm immediately that your office intends to take steps to remove this document from the docket and, if necessary, will refile the document with the appropriate redactions. Your immediate attention and prompt response is requested.

Very truly yours,

Joel L. Benavides
